

Action Research for Age-Friendly Community

Venue

The University of Tokyo

Date

November 9-11 2017

Target Attendees

Junior Gerontologists from Asia-Pacific Region

Important Dates

July 31 Abstracts Due

Mid August Notification of Abstract Decisions

November 9-11 APRU Workshop in Tokyo

We are looking for young gerontologists who are currently involved in, or wish to learn more about Action Research. You will learn basic ideas about Age-Friendly communities and actual Action Research cases. It will be a great opportunity to network with international gerontologists with similar interests.

 Apply Now!

Further information and application form can be found at:

http://www.glafs.u-tokyo.ac.jp/?page_id=4851&lang=en

Planned Activities

Day 1: Lectures and Workshop

Day2: Presentation and Discussion

Day3: Final Discussion and Site Visit

*Detail of the program will be posted on the website.

Expenses

There is no charge for the workshop. Participants will be expected to pay for their travel and accommodation expenses. Accommodation on campus will be provided on first come first served bases, and a single room costs 4,300 yen or 4,500 yen per night, depending on venue (breakfast not included). There will be a welcome dinner, and lunch will be served. If you have allergies or food preferences, please let the organizer know when registering.

Why you should attend:

- You will acquire first-hand knowledge from Action Researchers.
- The workshop will include sessions to discuss how to apply what you've learned to your own research.
- It's a great opportunity to network! Those willing will be asked to collaborate on a long term project on Action Research in the Asia Pacific.

Please contact Ms. Akiko Tanaka for any questions:

a.tanaka@iog.u-tokyo.ac.jp